

Technical Business Areas

Maneuver Support

Research and technologies that enable vehicle movement in a variety of developed and undeveloped terrains. These include techniques for improving manned & unmanned ground vehicle designs, characterizing vehicle performance in adverse terrain & weather, and improving materials & engineered systems for designing, constructing, maintaining & evaluating roadways and airfields. Special emphasis is placed on snow/ice covered, frozen and thawing—developed and undeveloped terrain.

